Dear Friend of Child Evangelism Fellowship,

December, 2019

“For unto us a Child is born, Unto us a Son is given,...” (Isaiah 9:6a).

I love teaching this verse to children. I love it when they see who our Lord Jesus truly is. He is Mary’s Son, the Child that was born in Bethlehem, fully human. He is also fully God, God’s Son, the Son who was given to die on the cross for our sins. Two natures, that of God and that of Man, in One Person. It is beyond my ability to comprehend the wonderful “mystery of godliness: God was manifested in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen by angels, preached among the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up in glory” (I Tim. 3:16).

Though I do not fully comprehend, I truly believe. And I thank God for the wonderful privilege of sharing the true message of Christmas with children. We could not do that without you.

All of us in Child Evangelism Fellowship of Maine are thankful for all of you who serve with us as you pray, as you give, and as you volunteer in so many different ways.

Throughout this season children all over Maine will hear this true message of Christmas: “For there is born to you this day in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord.” It is my prayer and I trust that it is your prayer also, that many of those children would receive God’s gift of salvation through faith in our Lord Jesus Christ.

On Christmas morning most kids will open presents that will bring a measure of excitement, happiness, and hopefully thanksgiving, but most of those presents will soon be gone and forgotten. I don’t even know if I could remember what I received last year. But the gift of salvation, that is forever. The gift of salvation is life giving, life sustaining and life transforming. The gift of salvation is our Lord Jesus Christ Himself: the Child that was born, the Son that was given. He is not a gift put under the tree, but the gift of God put on the tree, and made a curse for us, as He bore our sins in His own body, and was buried and rose from the grave in absolute triumph over sin and death. His is the gift that everyone needs. Thank you for bringing that gift to the children of Maine.

Merry Christmas and God bless you abundantly.

‘Til Every Child Knows,

John
