

November 2023

Dear friends of Camp Good News,

Psalm 100:4 "Enter His gates with thanksgiving, and His courts with praise! Give thanks to Him; bless His name!"

We truly have a lot to be thankful for here at Camp Good News. We have had a great fall so far. Our Trunk or Treat went well, we had over 250 people in attendance. The Gospel was shared with all. We have also been handing out CEF's "Do You Wonder Why" pamphlets to children in our area. After the mass shooting that took place in Lewiston, we wanted to be able to be there for our community and the children. If you or your church would like some of these pamphlets, please reach out to us and we will make sure you have some. They are a great resource for hurting children and adults. The camp program staff was also able to help at Blueberry Mountain Bible Camp. They had a Homeschool day camp that was well attended. It is nice to be able to partner with our other CEF chapters.

Another praise is we have been able to add to our staff. At the last CEF of Maine State Board meeting, Andrew and Lydia Brillinger were accepted to the Camp Good News staff. Andrew will be the Maintenance Coordinator working with myself and Thayne, heading up the maintenance crew and volunteers. Please pray for the Brillinger family, as they will welcome a baby in December and start raising their support. We did choose to step out in faith and hire him before his support was raised as we really need him to be here running the maintenance work. If you would like to support their ministry here at Camp Good News, let us know and we will be sure they contact you. They can also come to your church or small group and share in person.

We want to take this time to thank you for your support for Camp. Without your prayers and financial gifts, we would not be able to reach the children. Speaking of reaching the children, our weekly Good News Club[®] is up to 23 children in attendance, along with several teenagers and parents that stay and hear the Gospel message. We praise God that He is using Camp Good News in this way.

Remember to thank the Lord for the many blessings you have in your life. Also be sure to share the joy you have in Christ.

Thank you for partnering with Camp Good News to reach the children. We appreciate your generous support.

Until all the children hear,

Jeremy Brown,
Camp Director
