

Summer 2024

Dear Friends of Camp Good News,

Proverbs 22:9 "He who has a generous eye will be blessed, For he gives of his bread to the poor."

I hope this message finds you well and enjoying the blessings of this beautiful summer season. On behalf of everyone at Camp Good News, I want to extend our heartfelt gratitude for your unwavering support of our camping program. Your generosity and prayers have made a profound impact on the lives of so many young campers. This summer, thanks to your contributions, we will be able to provide a safe, nurturing, and spiritually enriching environment where children and teens can grow in their faith, build lasting friendships, and create memories that will last a lifetime. The joy and transformation we've witnessed in earlier years in our campers is a testament to the power of your support. From inspiring worship sessions and Bible studies to fun-filled activities and adventures in God's creation, every moment has been infused with the love and grace of our Lord. Thank you for being a vital part of our mission to spread the message of Christ and to nurture the next generation of believers. We couldn't do it without you, and we are incredibly grateful for your partnership. May God continue to bless you abundantly for your kindness and dedication.

'Til all the children hear,

Jeremy Brown,

Camp Director
